Who we are

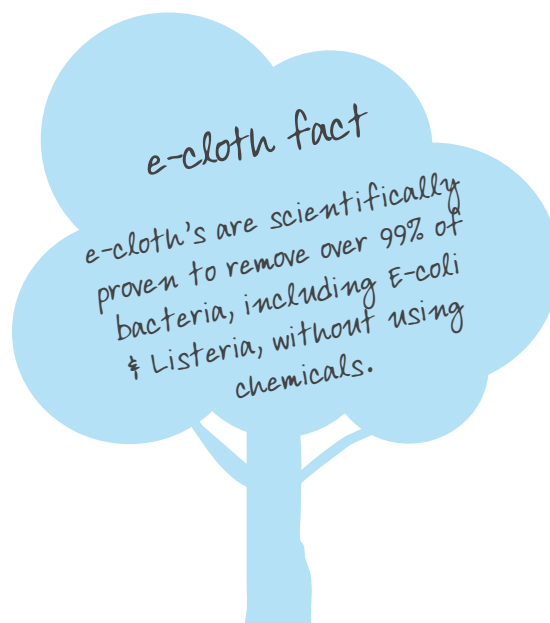

Our aim:

“To supply the most effective and the most environmentally friendly cleaning system available”

Since its foundation in 1995, EnviroProducts Ltd has rapidly grown into the UK's No.1 chemical free cleaning company.

Our single minded focus on high performance cleaning has created a range of products that clean entirely without chemicals, using just water.

As well as exceptional cleaning, e-cloth products provide significant cost and time savings versus ordinary cleaning, plus real health and environmental benefits.

High Performance

e-cloth benefits:

- Clean better than chemicals; without chemicals
- Remove thick grease and dirt from all hard surfaces, using just water
- Clinically proven to remove over 99% of bacteria
- Leave no chemical residue. Surfaces are left spotless and stay clean for longer
- Can reduce the use of household chemicals by up to 90%
- Exceptional performance on stainless steel, glass and chrome
- Guaranteed for 300 washes
 - nearly 6 years with weekly washing
- Significantly reduce cleaning time
 - Just wet and wipe
- Significantly reduce cleaning costs
 - No chemicals to buy
 - Cloths last for years
- Safer for the family, better for the environment
- Ideal for allergy sufferers – endorsed by Allergy UK
- Performance endorsed by major kitchen and bathroom manufacturers

e-cloth is recommended and endorsed by:

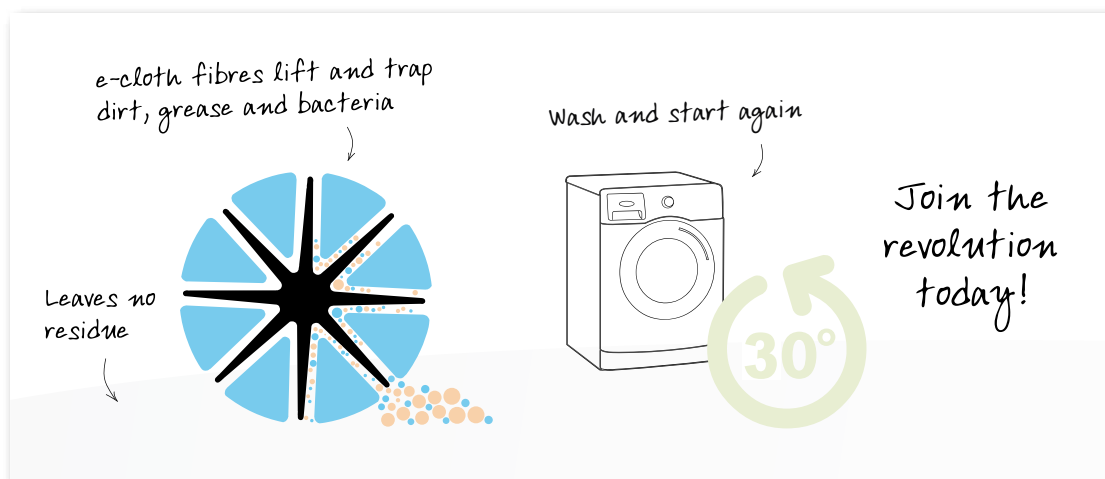

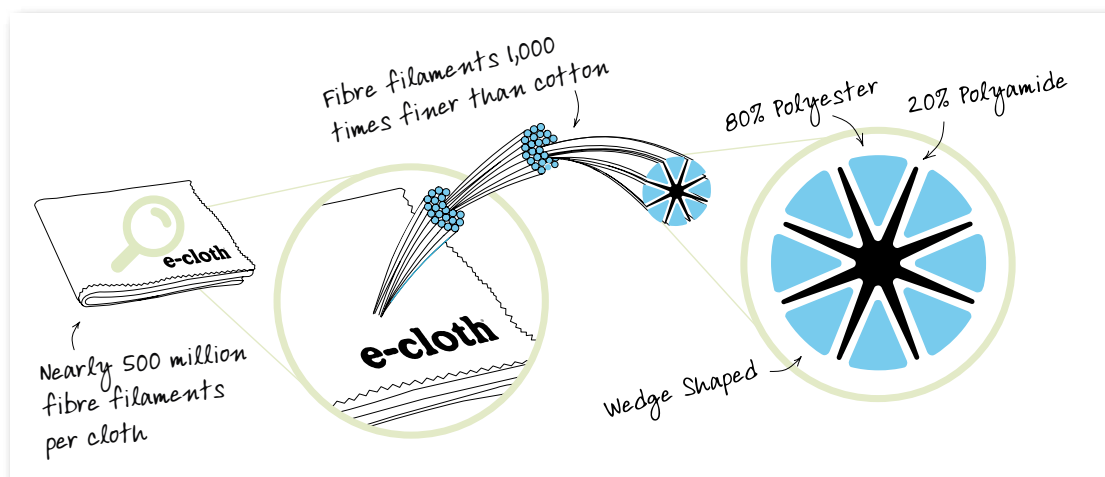

Extraordinary Cleaning

Unlike ordinary cloths, e-cloths are packed with millions of minute fibres designed to provide maximum cleaning power. 1000 times finer than a cotton fibre, each e-cloth fibre is split into 16 fibre filaments, all of which are processed to give perfect cleaning and polishing performance.

Tiny but immensely strong, these fibre filaments clean deep into the invisible nooks and crevices that exist on even the smoothest looking surface, using just water. Grease and dirt are quickly and easily removed and locked away inside the fibres, until the cloths are rinsed or washed. With 1.5 million metres of fibre and almost 500 million fibre filaments per cloth, perfect cleaning is assured, without the need for any chemicals.

In addition, scientific research carried out by the world renowned Silliker Group, has proven that e-cloths also remove over 99% of bacteria.

Clinically Proven

2010

Silliker Laboratories – France

Tests prove e-cloths remove over 99% of bacteria including E-coli and Listeria, from hard surfaces, using only water.

After just a quick rinse, the rate of bacteria transfer from one surface to another is only 0.01%.

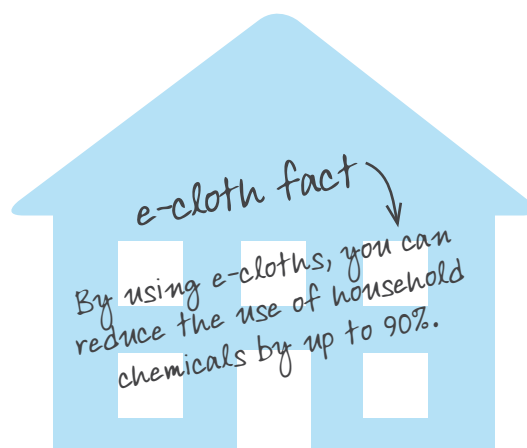

2007

Sheffield Hallam University
Biomedical Research Centre

"Independent tests have shown that e-cloths are highly efficient at removing bacteria, including E-coli, from domestic surfaces and are particularly effective on glass and steel."

"Tests have shown that unlike ordinary cleaning cloths, e-cloths do not support the growth of bacteria."

Tried & Tested

"The whole Good Housekeeping Institute team can't rave enough about e-cloths. Just add water to get brilliant results on everything from stainless steel to flooring".

"The best new product I have found ... I'm surprised that manufacturers of household chemicals haven't tried to get them banned"

"Exceptional at cleaning and essential for modern living"

"Best in test - 5 stars"

"This is a completely new way of tackling grime that's kinder to the environment and easier on your purse... It cleans exceptionally well and is the best option for the environment"
